

DINNER HOUR PUZZLING SOCIETY--GENERAL NOTES

Many Dinners Being Arranged for the Lenten Season—Dances Keep the Young Set Busy—News of Women's Clubs.

Continued from Third Page.

February 10, it will be under the protection of the Consul-General, Emanuel L. Sartori, Mrs. Herbert L. Sartori, Mrs. William Astor Chamberlain, Mrs. Frederick Nathan, Mrs. Edward Hale, and Montagu Evans; Mrs. Russell Stirling, Mrs. Josephine A. Blake, Mrs. Henry Law, Mrs. Joseph A. Blake, Mrs. Henry Law, Mrs. Walter H. Marshall, Mrs. William G. Eno, Countess de Castelviet, Miss Ellen Terry, Mme. Raymonde Delanois, Mrs. James Edward Hayes, Robert W. Ford, Leonidas Abbott, Mr. Edward Battin, George F. Steele, Rev. J. F. Stilman, Cornelius N. Bliss, Robert Stroemer, Cleveland H. Dodge, Lionel Dagenham, Thomas H. Hubbard, the Rev. A. N. Noy, W. Barclay Parsons, Bernard Baup, John T. Moore, Henry Parker, Francis Lynde, Henry de Forest, Thomas Stroemer, Frank A. Vanderlip, and Alfred T. White.

The artists will include Mme. Guerade, Mme. Meurville, Mme. Wilma, Mme. Alice Vrelet, Ovidie Marin, Charles Benoit, M. Renavent, Mme. Duque, Mme. Davene, Adam Hugo and Lucien Bonheur.

The programme will be followed by dancing.

Tickets are $2 and boxes $25 and are on sale at the Hotel Astor and the headquarters of the committee, 2 West Forty-fifth street.

Entente Club, Mrs. Alberta Berzon, president, will celebrate gentlemen's day on Friday with a musical programme at the Waldorf-Astoria. The programme will be under the direction of Mrs. Florence Foss, Jenkins, chairwoman of the music committee, and the artiste will be Miss Helen Relgrave, soprano, Martin Richardson, tenor, and the Max Jacobs string quartet. The programme will be followed by luncheon at which the guests of honor will be M. and Mme. Jacques Comi and Miss Leslie Collette.

The National Opera Club, Mme. Katherine Evans von Klemmer, founder and president, will hold its next meeting on Thursday at the Waldorf, when the topic will be "American Grand Operas."

Arthur Newman, Mrs. Edward Newman, Honoria Parker, David Bischoff, Louis G. Wissner,hurst of Berlin, will be among the speakers.

Excerpts from "Pon," "Carmen de Belgrave," "Norma" and the new $10,000 piece opera of "Fairyland" will be sung by Mme. Gertrude Pasquini, Mme. Phoenix Muller, George Harris Jr., and William Wade Hinshaw.

A card party for the benefit of Auxiliary No. 11 of Stone Wall Sanatorium will be held to-morrow afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Grace A. Smith, 59 West Forty-fourth street. Miss Ella Jones, Headress, and Mrs. Smith will be assisted by Mrs. John Kurus, Mrs. Edward Burton Williams. Tickets are $1 and may be obtained from Mrs. Lyle at 106 Central Park West.

The third in the series of the Merry Folk Dances will be held on Tuesday at the Hotel Marcelline. The patroneuses are Mrs. John F. Kelly, Mrs. Albert Paton Massey, Mrs. Augustus M. Anderson, Mrs. William W. Adams, Mrs. Edward Newman, Honoria Parker, David Bischoff, Louis G. Wissner,hurst of Berlin, will be among the speakers.

Miss Janet Richards will talk about the "Problems of the Day" at the current events meeting on Thursday at Delmonico's for the benefit of the Elks Club's work.

Mrs. James A. Farrell of Brooklyn will give a dance on Friday at Sherry's. Miss Janet Richards will talk about the "Problems of the Day" at the current events meeting on Thursday at Delmonico's for the benefit of the Elks Club's work.

Dr. and Mrs. John Kurus gave a dinner last evening at their home, 16 East 121st street, to celebrate their fifteenth wedding anniversary. The house was decorated with pink roses and the guests were relatives.

Mrs. Kurus gave the seventh in her series of Waldorf card parties on Thursday in the state apartment of the auxiliary and Mrs. Smith will be assisted by Mrs. John Kurus, Mrs. Edward Burton Williams. Tickets are $1.

All the bases have been sold for the dance hall to be given by the Elks Club, Mrs. William Rogers, chairman, on Tuesday, February 16, to celebrate their fifteenth wedding anniversary.

Most attractive features have been arranged by Mrs. Leonard L. Hill and Mrs. Bedell Parker, assisted by a large committee. Tickets for the ball will be obtainable from Mrs. Hill at 131 West Eighty-sixth street, or Mrs. Parker at Euclid Hall.

Mrs. Charles Alberi Small has charge of the decorations and the big ballroom will be transformed into a Greek garden, the stage being set to represent temple. About 100 persons will take part in the programme of song and classic dances. Fifty members of the corps, in Greek costumes, will sing the traditional hymns from the classical drama, beginning. Twenty girls playing on Pan's pipes will lead the march. They will include the Misses Dorothy Avery, Madeleine Clark, Florence Demarest, Marion Gillespie, Winifred Hall, Smith, Louise, Helen McKechnie, Dorothy Pirrie, Anna Reed, Eila Reed, Merita Reed, Emma C. Reichmann, Amy Schaefer, Helen Scheiner, Edith Spoders, Mildred Seitz, Virginia Tyler, Sue Young, Margaret Stein, Helen Khanan and Dorothy, Helen and Josefa Martin.

Then will come nine little maidens, the Misses Emily and Frances Parker, Muriel and Dorothy Borden, Mary and Alice West, Mary Gage Ferris, Elizabeth Weston, and Helen Chapman. To follow the heralds, pages and dancers, the president, officers and dance committee. After the march there will be general dancing. The proceeds from the entertainments will be used for the aid to hospitals and musicals in this city.

Mrs. Chapman has secured the ballroom for the remaining three afternoons of the season. At that of February 23, the artists will be Marcelline Craft, soprano; Mabel Gould, English soprano; Valentine Gresh, violinist, and Budka Leete, pianist. At the evening concert on February 23, Nina Morgan, soprano, will be among the artists. The white breakfast will be held on Saturday, May 1.

The fourth regular meeting of the Union Club, Matinee matinee, at Martin's, was held on Thursday at the Waldorf. The guests of honor were Alfred H. Brown, president of the American Playgoers, Mrs. William R. Stewart, manager of Knickerbocker Center, Dr. and Mrs. Clarence C. Moore, president of the Camera Club, Mrs. Anna Lambert and Mrs. Cornell Dunlap.

Mrs. Judd E. Wells was chairman of the dress and tools for her husband. The original Western Artistic History, Mrs. Mary E. Kenny, spoke on "The Story of Sita" and Professor Brown spoke on "The Dramatic Characters in the Old Testament." The programme of music was arranged by Herford, Ruth, Mrs. Lester Hartman, who sang two groups of songs and Mrs. Borden Louisa. Edward Falck was at the piano.

The Cutler Comedy Club will give its annual entertainment on Friday evening at the Plaza Hotel. Comedy and dancing will be presented by the students and after the performance there will be dancing.

The Society of the Daughters of America will give an entertainment consisting of cards, music and dancing on February 15, at the Hotel Astor. Mrs. John W. Paris has charge of the entertainment and guest tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Newell H. Stewart, treasurer; Mrs. Reuben H. Jeffery, auditor, and Mrs. Elsie H. Davis historian.

The New York Theatre Club, Mrs. Belle de Riviera founder and president, its regular meeting on Tuesday at the Hotel Astor. The play "The Law of the Land" was the subject of discussion. Mrs. Thomas Slade was chairman of the day.

A number of new members were welcomed at the club on Tuesday, among them Mrs. M. J. Mullin, Miss Faune Levy, Miss Julia Levy, Mrs. Jack L. Gunn, Mrs. James G. Beattie, Mrs. Henry F. Frauenthal, Mrs. L. Pollock, Mrs. M. Kraut, Mrs. J. W. Gray, Mrs. Louis Auerbach, Miss A. Preese, Mrs. Max Rosset, Mrs. Mrs. Epstein, Mrs. George S. Pollitz, Mrs. Alfred

Members of the Four Couillions will meet at Delmonico's on Thursday for their third dance of the season. The programme is set for April 1. The members of the class are Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. Thomas Sloan Young, Mrs. John J. Crawford, Mrs. Baker A. Jamison and Mrs. Thomas N. James. The board of governors comprises Lyman A. Spalding, Mr. Betrand Graham, Dr. Matthew Lawrence Carr, R. Bonn Freeman, Dr. Henry Pearson, C. Randall Ham-

MATINEE DAILY, 25-50-75

2,000 CHOICE SEATS 50c.

TWO BIG SUNDAY CONCERTS, BEGINNING TO-MORROW MATINEE

THIRD AND LAST WEEK

of the Most Remarkable Dramatic Engagement in Vaudeville History. The Volcanic and Soul-Shaking Tragedienne.

NAZIMOVA
"WAR BRIDES"

BY MARION MAGNUSSEN
W. H. COOPER, INC.

Were it not for unbreakable contracts elsewhere Nazi would remain at the Palace indefinitely. Her success is colossal — dwarfing everything else on the current stage.

PAT ROONEY & MARIAN

presenting TWENTY MINUTES OF PAT AND MARIAN

RALPH RIGGS & KATHERINE

"DANCE DIVERTISSEMENTS."

Corradini's Menagerie Kramer & Morton Werner-Amorus Co.

LATE STAR OF "LADY LUXURY"

INA CLAIRE

THE DOLL GIRL OF MUSICAL COMEDY.

H. H. FRAZEE'S

LONGACRE THEATRE

West 48th St. near B'way

J. FRED ZIMMERMAN, JR., and WM. HARRIS, JR., present

INSIDE THE LINES

By EARL DERR BIGGERS WHO WROTE THE STORY "7 KEYS TO BALDPAPE."

SPECIALLY SELECTED COMPANY

LEWIS S. STONE

H. Cooper Cliffe

Ivan Simpson

John Clegg

Robert Fisher

Anne Sutherland

Mildred Morris

W. C. Green

Mayne Lynton

Carroll McComas

James Bradbury

Horace L. Latham

Robert Mc Wade

Mack Harlan

Carroll Mc Wade

Edward See

TO-NIGHTS THE NIGHT

BY ERIC GALT

WITH GEO. COOPER, GEORGE BREWER, GENEVIEVE

JOHN H. MILLER, ROBERT

CHARLES COOPER, ROBERT